Hi Laura, Thanks for taking a minute to talk with me. I've CC'd Gabe here to keep him in the loop. As we discussed on the phone, we just need a statement from you as to what harm you think would occur if the piece in question was to be released. Once we have that, our FOIA office and the solicitors office will determine what exemption it may fall under and process accordingly. We greatly appreciate your assistance with all this!

Pursuant to the new awareness requirement, please find attached ONRR documents and a draft response letter we would like to release. Please let us know that you have reviewed so that we can proceed.

Good afternoon, As Ryan noted, there is a new memo issued today on the Awareness Review process that was disseminated to the heads of Bureaus and Offices. In case it has not made its way to you yet, I do want to highlight one important change in the Awareness Review process: non-response after 72 hours will be construed as affirmation that you have concluded your review - if you have a reasonable need for additional time, it is requested that you make that notification within the 72- hour period.

The full memo is available online at https://www.doi.gov/sites/doi.gov/files/uploads/awareness_process_memo_final.pdf

Thank you, as always, for your time on this.

I have spoken with Plaintiff and that Plaintiff has agreed to exclude Cabinet Affairs reports from the scope of responsive documents. Please cease review of these reports - they will not be produced.

Justin and I are working to identify approximately 200 pages of responsive material that does not involve general newsletters or reports. We plan to produce this to Plaintiff by July 20th, so we will circulate it early next week. We are also working with Plaintiff to exclude other categories of documents from the scope of the search.
